

Epic Winter Road Trip

Sydney > Gold Coast

As you follow the ocean along the Pacific Highway, there are a host of great spots to explore. One of the beaten tracks is Myall Lakes National Park (7) where you can walk, kayak and fish to your hearts content.

Another 'big' to tick off your road trip bucket list is the Big Banana (8) in Coffs Harbour. There is lots to see in the Coffs Harbour surrounds too, like the stunning Forest Sky Pier at Sealy Lookout.

Just before you cross the border into Queensland and into the Gold Coast, there are some great coastal towns. While Byron Bay gets lots of air time, we love somewhere a little quieter like Brunswick Heads (9).

Canberra > Sydney

An Australian road trip wouldn't be complete without sighting some of our 'big' icons along the road. About an hour out of Canberra, look out for the Big Merino (4) just off the highway on the way into Goulburn, the perfect spot for a stop and to learn the history of wool.

Bowral (5) is another must visit along the way. The largest town in the Southern Highlands, Bowral was traditionally a rural summer retreat and is home to everything antique, gourmet and Donald Bradman.

On the last leg into Sydney, take a detour to find Sea Cliff Bridge (6), a great spot to park and wander down the pedestrian side of the bridge for some iconic photos.

Melbourne > Canberra

There are lots of historic towns in regional Victoria that flourished during the gold rush and still hold that same charm today. Beechworth (1) is definitely worth a visit and a true foodie's haven. Grab lunch at their iconic bakery or for something really special dine at the acclaimed Provenance restaurant. Afterwards visit some of the historic sites such as the Old Goal or get adventurous with Beechworth's epic mountain bike trails.

Once you have crossed into New South Wales, Holbrook (2) is a family friendly spot to stop the journey with the Submarine Museum the backdrop to your next family holiday snap. Whilst not directly on the way, for the snow bunnies out there Perisher (3) and the NSW snow fields are absolutely worth a detour. Ski seasons runs from now until October 3, 2022.
